YESTERDAY'S DISPATCHES.

SPAIN.

MADRID, June 30.—The total number of new cases of cholera reported yesterday from the infected districts in Spain is 1,322, and the total number of deaths 602; being an increase of 30 per cent. in new cases and six per cent in deaths over the total number officially reported yesterday.

IRELAND.

DUBLIN, June 30.—A dispatch from Bantry, dated 2 o'clock this morning, states that the naval shamfight is in progress in Bantry Bay. Admirals Hoskins and Whyte are in command of the opposing squadrons. Admiral Whyte is holding Bear Island. Admiral Hoskins in person directed the movements of a detachment of the squadron which led the attack up to the enemy. Battle was begun last night. Sharp cannonade is now proceeding.

QUEENSTOWN, June 30.—The overdue steamer Gallia probably will arrive the latter part of this week, as she is reported to-day making fair headway with another steamer attending her. The Gallia's shaft is broken.

ITALY.

ROME, June 30.—Sig. Depretes, prime minister, has formed a new ministry by taking ad interim the foreign portfolio himself, vice Signor Mancini. Sig. Tajani is minister of justice. Otherwise the cabinet is unchanged.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, June 30.—The St. James' Gazette believes it to be untrue that the government proposes to retake and occupy Dongola and Egypt.

CENTRAL ASIA.

LONDON, June 30.—A dispatch from Teheran states that there are 1,000 Persians at work constructing the trans-Caspian railway. Warlike preparations are still being continued by Russia. Rumors are in circulation in the bazaars at Teheran that war will probably occur after the trans-Caspian railway is completed to Merv. Russians are bridging the river Murghab, on the confines of Afghanistan. Eight hundred Russian infantry soldiers are at old Sarakhs. Persians are fortifying the Persian Sarakhs and building barracks there for troops. A foundry has been started at Herat for casting heavy guns.

A St. Petersburg dispatch states that a telegraph office has been opened at Merv.

EASTERN STATES.

NEW YORK, June 30.—The jury acquitted Mrs. Dudley on the ground of insanity. The jury were only in consultation about five minutes when they rendered their verdict. A motion was made to send Mrs. Dudley to the State lunatic asylum, which her counsel opposed. The latter asked that their client be permitted to be returned to her native country and be placed in an institution there. The court will listen arguments on this motion on Thursday.

Cashier Versus Judge.

MITCHELL, Dak., June 7.—The cashier of the Whilelake branch bank of Mitchell, which suspended recently, was ordered to close his bank, but refused on the ground that the Mitchell Bank owed the Whitelake branch $11,000, and that the money belonging to Whitelake depositors should not be swallowed up in the Mitchell Bank failure. On Saturday Judge Wulfing went to Whitelake and posted a notice that the bank was closed. The cashier and assistant cashier, with depositors tore off the notice and opened the bank, and the officers began paying off the depositors, whereupon Judge Wulfing leaped over the counter and ordered a halt. The crowd pitched the judge over the counter and into the street, and the cashier continued to settle with the depositors, paying in full.

ON DIT.—It puzzles everyone how Anderson & Anderson can sell Bedroom and Parlor Sets, Chairs, Mattresses, Desks, &c. so mighty cheap.

HIBBS' TRIP TO BRITISH COLUMBIA.

How he Made his way through Washington Territory Undetected, to Farwell, Where he was recognized and Captured

Quite a sensation was caused at Farwell, B. C., by the arrest of the defaulting Lewiston, Idaho, postmaster, Hibbs, and from that town comes a short account of his movements from the time he left Lewiston until his capture, which has not been published.

About the middle of May last, Hibbs, who gave the name of T. G. Wilson, appeared at the Little Dalles, W. T., and, representing himself as a cattle dealer about to enter into a contract with the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, he took passage by the steamboat Kootenai for the new city of Farwell. B. C. He gave it to be understood that he had made a large sum of money in the cattle business, making no secret of the fact that he had lived for some years at Lewiston. Owing to some delay in the departure of the steamboat Hibbs was compelled to wait several days in the Little Dalles, but he seemed to evince no anxiety about this, and had no apparent desire to get across "the line" into the haven for defaulting bank cashiers.

While at the Little Dalles some one recognized him, and surprised to see him so far from home said, "Hello, Hibbs, what brings you out here?" Hibbs looked at his questioner, and replied with the greatest nonchalence that his name was not Hibbs and said he had not had the pleasure of meeting him before. Throughout his stay at the Little Dalles Hibbs kept up his assumed character of a wealthy stockman to perfection, and no one had the remotest idea that he was the gentleman whom the police were so anxiously inquiring after. Perhaps one of the chief reasons accounting for the man's apparent security was the fact that the Little Dalles is two days' journey from any point of telegraphic communication, and is only a few miles from the boundary line. On the trip up the river Hibbs "chummed" in with several of the passengers, and displayed quite a prodigal liberality with his ill gotten gains. He went so far as to volunteer a loan of a couple of thousand dollars to one gentleman, telling him that he should not require any security.

At Farwell, Hibbs was struck with the weakness that invariably overtakes defaulters when they embrace "the free air" across the line—he yearned to distinguish himself in the hotel business. He entered into a partnership with a young fellow to build a hotel; contracts were entered into and soon a fine $2000 hotel was being built. Hibbs was going to Victoria, intending to purchase furniture for the new building, when the minions of the law overtook him, and checked his further development in the new calling of life. Almost immediately upon his arrival at Farwell, Hibbs was recognized by an old Lewistonian named Allen, and finding it was impossible to hide his identification, he admitted that he was traveling under the alias of Wilson, and begged Allen "not to give him away."—Oregonian.

Dominion Legislation.

HOUSE OF COMMONS, June 24.

PARLIAMENTARY LIBRARIANS.

On the vote for the appointment of two librarians Mr. Laurier's amendment for only one was lost by 51 to 65. Griffin, of the Mail, it is understood, is second librarian, but he is so obnoxious to many Conservatives that the government whips could scarcely drum up enough to carry the motion.

THE SEDUCTION BILL.

On the third reading of the bill punishing offences against the person, Mr. Charlton's amendment punishing the seducers of women under twenty-one years was lost by 27 to 58. It was a party vote Mr. Watson voted for and Mr. Ross against.

THE MANITOBA CENTRAL.

The Manitoba Central is at a standstill. Messrs. Boyle and Van Horne are working against it. They contend that it is running too close to the Canadian Pacific and Northwestern for the first fifty miles. The people along the contemplated lines should make themselves heard by petition and otherwise, as the government are disposed to listen to the objections urged.

Kept His Sea-Legs

Miss Coshannigan—"Mr. Flipkins, what is a schooner?"

Flipkins—"Eh? Oh, it's a—I beg pardon, I mean—a two-masted sailing vessel."

Miss Coshannigan—"Ah, thanks."

Flipkins—"Are you interested in yachting, Clairette?"

Miss—Coshannigan—"No, I merely wanted to know what schooners were. Mr. Shorpe said you could navigate more schooners across the bar without getting wrecked than any other mariner he knew."—Lynn Union.

THE WORK OF VILLAINS.

Extraordinary Robbery on the Columbia River--Leaving a Man to Starve in the Mountains.

A man named Van Buren Reynolds was robbed of $500 under rather extraordinary circumstances on the upper Columbia river a few days since. Reynolds took passage with a couple of men named Ryan and Smith from Farwell, intending to cross "the line" into American territory. On the third night out the party camped on the lower Arrow lake. Early on the morning of the 12th Reynolds woke up to find his two companions standing over him, one holding a revolver to his head, while the other rifled his pockets. They took from him the whole of his money, some $500, and then decamped in the boat in which they had been traveling.

Reynolds was left without food in a most desolate region, 100 miles from the home of any human being. He set to, however, built himself a raft, and started off, intending to make his way down the river by this precarious method of navigation. Luckily he was picked up by the steamer Kootenai a few hours after he had started on his perilous voyage. The two thieves got through to Spokane Falls, and the last heard of them was that they were making for Portland, with Reynolds in hot pursuit.—Oregonian.

Sisters of Charity

Charity, attached to St. Mary's Infant Asylum, Dorchester, Mass., certify to the inestimable value of Ayer's Sarsaparilla in the treatment of sore eyes and skin diseases, among the many unfortunate children under their care. Mrs. S. D. Bodwell, Wilmington, Mass., writes concerning the treatment of her daughter, who was troubled with sore eyes, as follows: "I gave Ayer's Sarsaparilla to

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 1st, 1885.

THE CANADIAN PACIFIC RELIEF.

After months of weary waiting, watching and praying the directors of the C. P. R. company have at last had their wishes gratified and the resolutions looking to a readjustment of the relations between the company and the country are well under way. Mr. Pope introduced the subject in a speech bristling with facts and figures. He pointed out that in order to enable the company to compete with its transcontinental rivals the road must be built and equipped in a thorough manner; that as the resources of the company were locked up by the blanket mortgage of last year, and a dead-set having been made against the company in the money markets of Europe, it became essential to ask for a readjustment of the loan of 1884, and to extend temporary aid to the company. The details of the expenditure on the line last year were given as follows:

WEST OF CALLENDAR.

Construction	$48,382,081
Improvements	1,241,780
Materials	3,687,729
Total	$53,311,590

EAST OF CALLENDAR.

On main line	$ 4,223,758
Equipments on main line	9,168,755
Interest, etc, financing	1,389,474
Making a grand total of	$68,033,577

SUBSIDY AND LOANS.

Received from government subsidy	$20,240,317
Loan	18,626,600
Land proceeds	8,702,086
	$47,569,003

EXPENDED OUT OF COMPANY'S RESOURCES.

On main line	$20,514,577
Ditto on construction ditto	5,859,221
Dividends	5,378,000
Deposit with government to guarantee dividends $8,710,140, less dividends paid $1,802,863	6,907,377
Expenditures made and liabilities incurred out of other than government resources	33,357,178

THE AMOUNT PROVIDED FOR.

This amount was provided by the company as follows:—

Capital	$29,568,123
Bonuses	232,600
Town sites	504,675
Earnings paid	1,456,318
	$31,761,716

Leaving a floating debt of $6,895,462, and making up the total $38,657,278. He took credit to the government for the manner in which the great enterprise had been encouraged and highly eulogised the men who composed the company, on whose courage and enterprise it had nearly been carried to a successful completion. The antagonism manifested by the American roads was touched upon and a table of figures given which show the favorable position the C. P. R. takes in comparison to the other transcontinental lines. Mr. Pope concluded by indicating the benefits Canada would receive from the early completion of the road, notably the through traffic to the Pacific coast without going on to foreign soil and the direct and cheap route through Canada for our immigrants to reach the Northwest. Mr. Chapleau seconded the resolution in a speech carefully prepared and read by him, a most unusual procedure for a member of parliament to adopt. Really such a proceeding is opposed to the rules of debate and during the time Mr. Chapleau was reading Mr. Trow, the opposition whip, rose to a point of order and called the attention of the speaker to the fact. Mr. Speaker, however, took no notice of the point. Mr. Chapleau's essay was a splendid effort and reads well in Hansard. It is impossible to summarise it as it is chiefly historical; but the fact our readers will doubtless learn with satisfaction that after showing the necessity of the C. P. R. as a means of developing the country, its construction was necessary in fulfilment of the sacred obligation Canada assumed when British Columbia became part of confederation. The attempt of the late government to repudiate that engagement was a dark page on our history, and was thoroughly in keeping with the incapacity which marked the whole connection of that administration with the Pacific railway scheme. Mr. Blake spoke for seven hours in reply, his remarks extending into next day's sitting. Referring to what he had been charged with at different times as to the views he held on the obligations devolving on Canada in regard to British Columbia's admission to the Union, he defined his position to be this: Canada had made a foolish arrangement with British Columbia, and as she could not fill it he, for his part, did not wish to hold British Columbia to the bargain or to keep it within the Dominion against its will. He then launched out to attack the C. P. R. He condemned the selection of the Kicking Horse Pass, and declared the road by that route could never be worked owing to avalanches. He condemned the grades and curves on the line; in fact, condemned everything in connection with it. He propounded his scheme for dealing with the company's debt which, in effect, was that a loan of five millions should not be made, but that the government should release to the company the money lodged with it as security for the payment of dividends.

THE INDEMNITY OF M P's.

Most of our readers are aware that each M. P. receives $1000 a year as indemnity and mileage, at the rate of 10 cents a mile. While attending parliament a senator or member can draw on the accountant of the house at the rate of $7 a day until he has received the full account of his indemnity, but if the session does not last the length of time necessary to receive the amount at the daily rate mentioned he obtains the balance of the thousand dollars at the end of the session. On the 20th of June, however, the last payment of the $7 was made, every member who was at Ottawa having drawn his full indemnity. Thus from January 29th to June 20th, a period of 143 days, the amount is $1001. Henceforth, then, no member of parliament will receive one cent for the loss of time and injury to his business caused by attending to his legislative duties. This position of affairs is not at all conducive to good temper on the members and a little grumbling is heard. A rumor was current at Ottawa that at a ministerial caucus a demand was made for an addition of $500 to the regular sessional allowance, and it is said the government intended to take a vote of credit, adjourn for six months, and then pay the members an additional allowance for attendance at an autumn session. We do not know what degree of truth is contained in these statements, but the proposition seemingly meets with the approval of the members.

The Wandering Woman.

The woman who walked from Nanaimo with her two children were prominent on the street the whole of yesterday. She is rather wandering in her statements, and is afraid that it is someone's intention to take her children away. She evidently is slightly demented. The circumstances of her case are about as follows:

For a number of years she has been living with a man at Cache Creek, who is the father of the little girl. Nine months ago she was given a sum of money by her partner and left for Victoria, and, as she says, "went over the plains" to the east. Four months ago she returned and began a search for some friends in Victoria. She learned they were in Nanaimo and went there, but was unable to discover them. Several weeks ago she commenced to walk to Victoria, arriving here, as stated, on Sunday last. She has refused assistance from a number of people who have offered to provide a home for herself and children until she can settle as to what she will do. Yesterday morning she waited in the rain to give back to Mr. Lubbe the money he had given her, but he refused to take it. She was under the impression at the time that they were trying to get a case against her and send her to New Westminster.

She says that at one time she lived in Nicola valley and has relatives now there, to whom she intends to go. On her way she avers she will leave the little girl, a bright child, with her father, who is still at Cache Creek.

The little 9 year-old boy Johnny, she states, was for some time at the mission at Williams lake, and while there received a hurt and his mind has been weak since.

When she left Mr. Lubbe's yesterday at 1 o'clock it was with the intention of hunting up Mr. S. Tingley, who, she states, knows all about her. That gentleman is, unfortunately, not in town at present.

As there is no doubt as to her being somewhat out of mind the authorities should interfere and take charge of the trio, for it is a sad sight to see them wandering the streets in a most forlorn looking condition, the woman in a ragged, dust-covered black alpaca, the little boy ragged, and the little girl full of smiles amidst the mother's wretchedness.

The New Hotel.

Preparations will be commenced in about ten days to erect a large hotel on the southeast corner of Government and Broughton streets. The contract of this building is let to Kempster Bros., and the design, which is known as the Victorian style of architecture, was furnished by Mr. J. P. Donovan. The building is to cover 66x135 feet, will be three storeys high and contain about 100 rooms. On the ground floor, facing Government street, will be two fine stores with the main hotel entrance in the centre. This entrance will lead to a spacious hall in which will be situated the office. On Broughton street there will also be two stores with the hotel side entrance between them. In the rear will be an entrance connecting with the ladies and main entrances, thus giving three entrances by which means the baggage and domestic services of the hotel will be kept from the main and side entrances. On the ground floor will be the bar room, large billiard and card rooms, and all conveniences necessary for a first class hotel. A commanding and spacious staircase will connect with the large hall, 15x66 feet, of the second floor, communicating with an elegant dining room, 32x46 feet, large parlor, 20x22 feet, lavatories, bathrooms, closets, &c, 32 in number. The rooms on this flat will be so arranged that they can be used as suites or singly. There will also be a private stairway for ladies connecting the first and second flats. Another large staircase will connect with two hallways running 135 feet on the third flat, and will give access to 53 well-lighted and convenient guest rooms, having all the conveniences of lavatories, closets, fireplaces, gas, water and all modern improvements. While this construction is moderate in expenditure it will be all that can be desired in utility or appearance, and will doubtless give good returns to its enterprising owner, Mr. Louis Erb. The contractors will engage as many hands as can be profitably employed in perfecting the different branches of the work, which they will push forward with a view to as speedy a completion as is consistent with the durability of the work. All the material used in construction will be of provincial manufacture or growth, and when the hotel is finished it will be handsomely furnished throughout. It is already leased to Ousterhaut & Co., popular landlords. Providing no unforeseen accidents or delays occur the building is expected to be completed within three months.

Yale District.

(Sentinel.)

Several claimants for damages incurred through trespass of the C. P. R Co. here were heard by Mr. Mr. Justice Walkem and referred.

Mr. E. Sequime is about erecting an extensive grist mill, which will make the fourth for the district. Okakagan possesses much good land, and the population is rapidly increasing.

Rev. Mr. Horlock has returned from an absence of two weeks, having gone as far as Mr. Vernon's, and reports crops in Okanagan and Spallumcheen looking remarkably well. Farmers and ranchers are cheerful over the prospects. Considerable progress is made in improvements in different directions. Rev. Mr. Sheldrick, Spallumcheen, has got into his new house.

Sister Superior from the convent at Victoria, and the Sister in charge of the school at St. Mary's Mission, Fraser river, came up last Friday and remained a few days at St. Anne's Convent, west of Kamloops, and early in the week left with Sister Superior General from Montreal and Sister Praxedes, of New Westminster, for Williams Lake, where a delay of a few days will be had before returning down the road again.

Mr. E. T. Pearse and Mary Charlotte, daughter of the late Thomas Pope, were wedded at Kamloops on the 23rd inst.

VICTORIA real estate is looking up. Yesterday Harris, Lowenberg & Co. sold the lot (23x66) on which their office stands, together with the buildings, for $7,000. The same firm disposed of a full lot on Yates above Blanchard street for $1,900.

Failures on the Increase; Liabilities on the Decrease.

Progress of the Indian War in Arizona.

EASTERN STATES.

WASHINGTON, June 30.—It is estimated that there has been a decrease of about $10,500,000 in the public debt during the month of June. This will make the total reduction for the fiscal year ended to-day about $65,000,000. The reduction during the previous fiscal year was $101,000,000 The expenditures for the fiscal year ended to day were about $310,000,000 and receipts about $321,000,000, or about $7,500,000 less than estimates.

Commander Terry, commanding the squadron of trainingships Portsmouth, Jamestown and Saratoga, writes from Lisbon on the 16th inst. that in consequence of the increase of cholera in Spanish ports he has changed his programme, and the vessels will go direct from Lisbon to Madras, and will sail from the latter port about July 14th for the United States.

NEW YORK, June 30.—The mercantile failures for the six months ending to day are reported by R. G. Dunn & Co. as 6640, as against 5510 for the first six months of 1884, and increase of 499. In liabilities, however, there is a marked diminution, being for the first half of 1855 $74,000,000, as against $124,000,000 in the first six months of 1884. In a circular announcing these statistics the fact is developed that an increase in failures of less than 500 among the number of traders reported by this agency, now over 1,000,000, is not surprising, while their diminishing importance, as shown by the low aggregate and average liabilities, is commented on as denoting a more favorable condition of things than existed at this time last year.

EXTRAORDINARY SCENE IN COURT.

A Woman Brought up for Contempt

And Put Under Heavy Bonds.

Mr. Justice Walkem, at Kamloops on the 19th inst. heard a case of an extraordinary character, it being nothing more nor less than that of a woman who was charged with contempt of court. The Sentinel says:—

Mrs. Jane Palmer was brought up on a notice that had been served upon her to appear to answer a contempt of court which she had committed by writing an abusive and threatening letter to the judge in connection with legal proceedings which had been before the court and in which Mrs. Palmer and her husband were interested. The sheriff's officer being sworn, proved that he had served Mrs. Palmer two days ago with the judge's order to appear, and state why she should not be committed for contempt. He also testified that when Mrs. Palmer was served with the summons she sent a message to his honor, which the witness told, but after some hesitation; as it was low and unworthy of any woman we refrain from publishing the indecent expression. The prisoner admitted that she had done as charged and after some time apologized for her conduct.

The threats in the letter were then dealt with; after giving the prisoner a well deserved lecture his honor directed her to find security to a bond of $1000 to keep the peace and be of good behavior for one year from date. His honor warned her against continuing difficulties with neighbors, as he had been made aware that grand jurors at two different assizes had spoken of taking action respecting what is charged as slander put in circulation by the party now before the court. The prisoner's husband eventually furnished the bail.

The young lady answering the description sent was arrested on arrival by Officer Moresby, who brought her to Victoria, though she claimed to be innocent and had never been in the hotel. Her trunk was examined here, and she was found to be the wrong individual, as Seeley, the complainant, could not identify her. She was accordingly liberated, and returns today on her journey.

Royal City Young Ladies Summon Young Men

Who Dared to Bathe in their Presence.

An Exciting Time Among Bench and Counsel.

(By our Special Reporter.)

On the arrival of the Yosemite at New Westminster Monday afternoon, it was seen that quite a flutter of excitement prevailed among its citizens. Something evidently of great moment was astir. One of ten leading officials eagerly welcomed a well known lawyer of Victoria and hastened to place him in a well appointed wagon and hurriedly drove him towards the penitentiary. Others collected together and seemed to be in close conference, but the peals of laughter that came every once in a while from the groups proved the subject matter of their conference very mirth-raising. On enquiry we found that the cause of all this excitement and mirth was the prospect of a case that was to be tried at the court house that evening. It appeared that certain lads, whose fathers hold high official positions in New Westminster, had been summoned by certain ladies of high repute and respectability for having indecently exposed themselves by going to bathe near where the said ladies had been holding a picnic.

Towards evening the town's excitement ran higher and at 7 p. m. the court house was overcrowded. The bench was composed of the following J. P.'s: W. D Ferris, P. McFiernan, J. Pittendreigh and G. Webster, assisted by J. H. Todd. The prosecution had employed all the legal talent to be had in the town, and the defence had to wire to Victoria for a lawyer to defend them. Norman Bole led off the evening's programme with a would be effective speech in which in a mock heroic strain he detailed the awful shock his clients had sustained in seeing these lads undress for bathing. Mrs. Herring was the first witness and she stated that being on the bridge on the evening in question, which crosses the river Brunette she saw two or more lads prepare to undress and one actually did so undress and was being pushed into the water by an elder boy when she left the bridge. Two other ladies supported this evidence and a gentleman named DeBeck stated he laid the information to stop such awful scenes in future. An elderly lady then gave evidence that she crossed the bridge twice that evening and saw nothing wrong.

Mr. Theo. Davie was about to commence his speech for the defence when he was stopped by the bench, who said the case had not been proved. So it was no use continuing it further.

Messrs Bole and McColl raved and declared against this decision of the bench, Mr. Bole earning for himself the respectful remark of one of the audience to "dry up," whereupon the learned council assumed an attitude and dared to come on any blackguard who interrupted him.

Eventually the bench decided to stop the case each side to bear their own costs, and censured the boys for their rude and ungentlemanly conduct to the ladies.

Mr. Davie protested against such an evident absurdity, but Norman Bole prevented him from being heard by the bench and was again, amid a perfect babel of tongues, requested to lie down, and the father of one of the boys was told by the bench to behave himself or he would be put out.

It was now 10:30 p.m. and the defence wanted to go on with the other cases; the bench agreeing.

Mr. Bole protested with might and main against going on. His lady witnesses could and would not stay up till such indecent hours.

On the other hand the defence showed the prosecution had bought up all the legal talent in New Westminster, putting them to great expense in getting a legal gentleman from Victoria and it would be very hard if they had to keep their lawyer over two or three days to suit the other side and also when it was more than possible this case would be thrown out like the other.

The bench amid great confusion decided to go on and Mr. Bole said he declined and asked to be allowed time to draw up an affidavit to deliver over the bench to the terrors of the law for refusing to do as he wished. This was the gem of the evening, Mr. Bole dictating to the bench an affidavit and the chairman writing it out.

After a while a sense of his position dawned on the J. P., and he refused to finish it.

Here the cases ended and an adjournment was had to the bar of the Colonial. J P's, lawyers and friends of both sides pledged each other in the convivial cup. A quasi indignation meeting was held outside the hotel and then one after another departed for home, and New Westminster resumed her usual quiet, sleepy way.

Art Exhibition and Sale.

The splendid collection of oil paintings by Prof. Schaffer, who has been in Victoria for several weeks painting local scenes will be placed on exhibition this afternoon and evening and will be offered for competition on Thursday evening and Friday afternoon and evening. The collection comprises 60 pictures among which are scenes from various parts of the United States, those of California being specially fine. The different local paintings are an exceedingly faithful portrayal of nature and prove Prof Schaffer to be an artist of superior merit. The exhibition will be a treat and should be taken advantage of by all lovers of the beautiful. The sale will give Victorians a chance of buying pictures of real worth at competitive prices. The catalogue will be found in the advertisements.

St. Louis College Examination.

The midsummer examination of St. Louis College took place yesterday. His Grace Archbishop Seghers, the Very Rev. Father Jonckau and the Rev. Fathers Maudant and Nocolaye were present, besides the teachers, the Rev. Fathers Van Nevel and Heynen and R. T. Macdonald.

Seventy pupils were in attendance, and at 9 o'clock the examinations were commenced, the archbishop and Father Jonckau conducting the same. The pupils in the different branches showed a thorough training, and his grace felt highly pleased with the manner in which they severally acquitted themselves. For the four previous days the pupils had been subjected to searching written examinations, but the examiners were yesterday handed closed class-books to select their questions, which were not the most simple. The classes in Canadian history, arithmetic, French, English grammar, geography and book keeping (double entry) evinced a sound knowledge of these branches by the pupils taking part in them. At the conclusion his grace distributed a large number of valuable book prizes, awarded according to the highest average marks made during the term, after which he addressed the children at length in complimentary terms, urging them to maintain the honor of St. Louis college during the holidays by their good conduct. Below is the result of the several written examinations during the term:

Chemainus School — Midsummer Examination.

The midsummer examination of Chemainus school was held on Friday, June 26th. Mr. and Mrs. Boutall, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Fuller, Miss Lilley, Mrs. Cameron, Mr. Windsor, Mr. Miller and others were present. The more advanced pupils had previously undergone a written examination and their papers were carefully examined by those present. After an oral examination in the various subjects, most of the pupils gave recitations, and the rolls of honor were then awarded as follows:

Department, John Windsor.

Punctuality and regularity, George D. Lilley

Proficiency, Eilen Thomas.

A handsome writing desk was presented with each roll of honor. The visitors present had not forgotten to provide refreshments for the pupils, and a pleasant picnic was held on the play-ground, a fine grass field. The pupils of this school have been very regular in attendance, and have, as a consequence, made great progress during the past year.

BATOCHE.—We have received from the Grip Printing and Publishing Company, of Toronto, a copy of their new plate "The Capture of Batoche," lithographed in five colors, size 20x26 inches. This is a graphic sketch of the now famous charge and is a very creditable piece of work, in our opinion equal to anything of the sort we have ever seen. Evidently no pains have been spared in its production and it deserves to have a large sale, as well from its merits artistically as from being a memento of this great fight. It has been compiled from the most reliable sources, and, in the opinion of eyewitnesses and participators in the battle, is a correct delineation of the action. It is retailed at 30 cents and can be had from all newsdealers or from the publishers.

Point Ellice Bridge.

Mr. A. W. Syholt, representing the San Francisco Bridge Co., who have the contract for the erection of Point Ellice bridge, arrived by the G. W. Elder yesterday. Mr. Syholt had charge of the building of all the bridges on the line of the C. P. R., between Port Moody and Emory, and also the erection of the Cantilever bridge over the Fraser at Lytton. The bridge to be erected over the Arm is a composite truss, four spans, two Fink deck and two Pratt through trusses. These will be supported by ten iron cylinders, with wood piles driven in hollow and space filled with concrete. There will be a broad carriage-way with walk for foot passengers on each side, six feet in width. The whole bridge, when complete, will receive two coats of paint, and will no doubt be an ornament to the Arm. Work will be commenced in about a week's time, or so soon as the plant can be got here. This latter is at present in New Westminster, and Mr. Syholt leaves this morning to have it transferred to this point. Five practical men will be brought from San Francisco, the balance will be secured here. About six weeks will be consumed in the erection of the bridge. Travel during that time will have to go by the roundabout way of the Gorge road. The Albion Iron Works have the contract for providing all the iron work for bridge.

Pavilion Hall.

Messrs. Cyrs & Cross have leased Pavilion Hall and are making alterations with the intention of converting it into a variety theatre. A gallery has been erected which has been partitioned off into private boxes with a seating capacity of about 200. The auditorium is being renovated and the benches will be superseded by chairs. A new stage has been built, embracing all modern improvements with three dressing rooms attached, and new curtains and drop scenes of handsome design have been added. Near the front entrance is being built a refreshment room where nothing but temperance drinks will be dispensed.

The proprietors affirm that everything will be first-class and nothing of an objectionable character produced on the stage or allowed in the building. Mr. Cross is now visiting Portland and San Francisco with the intention of engaging a good company, and is expected back within ten days, by which time the alterations will be completed and everything ready to commence business.

Where to Spend the Holiday.

To-day is Dominion Day, and a public holiday, and there are a number of places where it can be passed in a most enjoyable way.

The annual picnic and games of the Victoria fire department will be the event of the day, and will be held at their new grounds on the Esquimalt road.

The annual Saanich farmers' picnic will be given at McMillan's grove, South Saanich, and all who have enjoyed their previous hospitality will make it a point to again visit them.

The annual excursion of the Methodist church and Sabbath school will be held at Pedder bay, the steamer Amelia making two round trips to that point.

A large number of private picnics have been arranged for up Victoria arm, and the day generally will be spent in a rational manner.

North Saanich School.

The examination of the above school was conducted by the teacher, Mr. J. W. Thompson, and the trustees, who evinced their satisfaction at the progress made. In a spelling contest the first prize was won by Sarah Williams, the second by James Foster and the third by Nellie MacIlmoyl. The honor roll was: Deportment, Nellie McDonald; punctuality and regularity, Amey Williams; proficiency, Sarah A. Williams. The other chief prize winners and those of special mention were: Fifth class—Writing, Fanny Imrie; music, Mary E Roberts. Fourth class—General proficiency, George Baker first, Esther Roberts second, John Imrie third; reading, Maggie McDonald first, Stella Brethour second, George Brethour third; advancement, Robert F Mills. Third class—Arithmetic—Alexander McDonald, reading, Elizabeth Richardson first, Charles Armstrong second.

Dufour's Art Sale.

W. Dufour & Co. will offer for sale on Thursday and Friday next 150 choice pictures from the Philadelphia Art Association comprising paintings in oil and water colors, in massive gold and bronze frames, by some of the very best easern artists. The collection is an exceedingly beautiful one, embracing a variety of subjects, originals and copies of old masters. The success and worth of the previous sale will no doubt be repeated in this, as the pictures are a finer lot in every way. They will be on exhibition to-day and up to the time of sale, and are well worthy an inspection. Lovers of fine art should not fail to embrace the opportunity for securing some of these pictures.

The Island Road.

On the Bell, Larkin & Patterson contract, the grade is now ready between the Nanaimo and Chemainus rivers, a distance of 25 miles, with ties prepared and ready for rails. It was expected that the Barnard Castle with 1500 tons of steel rails would be at Oyster Bay wharf today. The locomotive will arrive in another week, and track-laying between the two rivers will be at once commenced. The Nanaimo and Chemainus river bridges will be of the Howe truss pattern and will be erected in a short time.

About 900 men, white and Chinese, are engaged on the contract, which is rapidly progressing toward completion.

The East Coast Route.

The arrangements between the C. P. N. Co. and the People's Navigation Co. were completed last night, the arrangement being signed. The present trip of the R. P. Rithet will be the last of the C. P. N. Co.'s steamers on the east coast, they withdrawing all opposition. The consideration, we learn, is 25 per cent of the gross receipts. Fares will likely be advanced to $2 50 to Nanaimo for passengers and the same amount per ton for freight.

COLWOOD SCHOOL.—The examination of this school was held on Friday last, and was most successful. The teacher, Mr. J. A. McLeod, gave prizes to deserving pupils. Alice Jones was awarded the prize for general proficiency, presented by Mrs. A. H. Peatt. The rolls of honor were presented to: For proficiency, Alice Jones; for punctuality and regularity, J. H. Cessford; for deportment, Albert E. West.

MISS LAURA DUNTY supported by a good company will make her debut to a Victoria audience this evening; but her fame as an accomplished and pleasing actress is already well established here; those of this city who have already seen her in "A Mountain Pink," will be glad of the opportunity of a second indulgence, and those who have not should embrace the opportunity of attending her representation as a rare treat awaits them.

THE EXTRAORDINARY STORY

Of a Young Girl who Says She was Kidnapped

And Kept in an Attic for Ten Weeks,

A correspondent has had an interview with some relations of the young woman Bertha Dennis, who alleged that she was kidnapped while traveling from Croydon to Ladywell on March 4, and imprisoned in a garret for ten weeks, and it would appear that her friends place the utmost reliance in the whole of her statements. It now seems that she had been for upwards of three years in the service of Mr. Newman, a gentleman residing at Station Road, Reigate, as cook, and an elder sister fills a similiar situation next door. On March 3rd, one of her sister's fellow servants proposed that as they had both got a holiday on the following day, she and Bertha Dennis should go to London together, and it was agreed that the latter should visit her aunt, at Ladywell in the afternoon and finish up the evening with her brother in Church street, Croydon. Before starting in the morning, Bertha Dennis was paid her quarter's wages, amounting to £3, and it is said to have been quite by accident that she took the whole of the sum with her. Her intention was place the greater portion in her box, but she forgot to do so. Owing to some misunderstanding she missed her companions at Reigate Station, and the first intimation of anything being wrong was received when the other girl called at Mr. Dennis', in Church street, the same night, and asked "whether Bertha was ready to go home." Nothing was heard of Bertha Dennis from that day until she knocked at the door of her brother's shop at Croydon, having changed in a period of ten week from a respectable-looking young woman to a perfect beggar to all appearances. She was greatly emaciated, and all but insensible from exhaustion. According to her account, which she was only able to give after restoratives had been administered, she had been exactly twelve hours tramping from some place near London (she believes it was New Cross) to Croydon. When she left Reigate she had in her possession a new mackintosh, a handbag, an umbrella, a brown paper parcel, a silver watch, two silver chains, a locket with "Bertha" engraved on it and a gold ring set with stones. The whole of these things, with the exception of the watch had been taken from her. While Mrs. Dennis, her sister-in law, was attending to her, she noticed that she was holding the watch in her hand, and she sobbed, "I would not let them take that." The unfortunate girl had only been to London twice in her life. She stated that she noticed the old lady who drugged her in the booking office first, and she seemed very anxious to know where she was going. When they were seated in the train she said, "It is a nice day, miss," and then it was that the handkerchief was waved in her face. She often saw the same old lady in the house, and was certain that she could identify her providing she wore the same clothes. The other women in the house not only wore wigs, but they painted their faces and lips. They told her that she would have to go out and do as they did, and when she said she would not they beat her. All her clothing was worn by the women. The jacket was altered to fit a bigger woman. (Mrs. Dennis found that the buttons had been shifted some few inches forward.) On the morning that she was blindfolded she remembers coming down a great many stairs. When she arrived at Croydon she had not a farthing, and her linen is said to have been as black as one's hat. Her friends have never known her to tell an untruth, and she has never before been the cause for one hour's anxiety to her mother and father, who have resided in Reigate all their lives. After staying all night with her sister-in law she was taken home on Wednesday afternoon, and has since been under the care of a doctor. Superintendent Rogers, of the Redhill police, has the matter in hand, the girl's parents believing that she was kidnapped for the purpose of robbery, if nothing more serious. The first to give information to the Scotland Yard authorities of her disappearance was a Mr. Gray, of Redhill, in whose service she formerly was, and who had always taken great interest in the family. The brown paper parcel which she had with her contained old paper bags which she was in the habit of saving for use in her brother's business at Croydon, and Miss Dennis stated that the women burnt these directly they opened the parcel. She was locked in the attic for ten weeks, and lived on bread and water.

A Remarkable Escape.

Mrs. Mary A. Dailey, of Tunkhannock, Pa., was afflicted for six years with asthma and bronchitis, during which time the best physicians could give no relief. Her life was despaired of, until in last October she procured a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery, when immediate relief was felt, and by continuing its use for a short time she was completely cured, gaining in flesh 50 pounds in a few months. Free trial bottles of this certain cure of all throat and lung diseases at Langley & Co.'s drug store. Large bottles $1. 4dw.

The World's Industrial and Cotton Exposition.

NEW ORLEANS, May 29, 1885.

To Mr. Louis Grunewald, New Orleans, (agent of Messrs. Steinway & Sons, New York): Dear Sir—In making our official report as jurors of group 8, class 808, on musical instruments, we deeply regretted the fact of being debarred to express our opinion on the exquisite display of several magnificent Steinway Pianos at your beautiful exhibit at our exposition; but as they were not entered for competition, and only for exhibition, we had to abide by our instructions and ignore them as well as other makers for above reasons.

As professional artists, however, we feel it our sacred duty to express to you, unsolicited, our great admiration for the Steinway Pianos, which we consider the "Beau Ideal" of a perfect instrument, combining in its great mechanical construction all those eminent qualities of touch, sympathetic and singing qualities of tone, brilliancy, power, etc., which render them more than dear to any artist or amateur who loves music as produced on any of these wonderful and, we think unsurpassed pianos.

Had the "Steinways" been entered for competition, our work, in place of being anything but easy and pleasant, would have become a labor of love, and instantaneously resulted in our conferring the "highest awards" possible to the Steinways. We write this after having individually expressed ourselves in mutual conversation, and tender this as a tribute to a firm which has done so much to elevate true musical art in this country, and which has the good fortune to be represented in our section by you, Mr. Grunewald, to whom we beg to tender our assurances of future success.

Very respectfully and fraternally,
E. RICHARD,
H. JOUBERT,
G. D'AQUIN,
WM. H. PILCHER.
